

FORM NO. PRI-FRM-EN

Research Fellow Application Form

For applications to Research Fellow, Associate Research Fellow, and related academic appointments at the Panorama Research Institute.

ISSUED BY
Panorama Research Institute · Panorama Scholarly Group

APPLICATION NO. (INTERNAL)

— — — — —

1. Application Notes

The Panorama Research Institute is a research and academic development platform of Panorama Scholarly Group. Its work encompasses academic research, the organization of research projects, scholarly publishing studies, indexing and evaluation research, policy and social research, research on artificial intelligence and future society, academic conferences, think-tank reports, and international collaboration.

This form is used to apply for an academic appointment as a Research Fellow, Associate Research Fellow, or similar role. Applicants must ensure that all submitted information and materials are truthful, accurate, and complete. The Institute conducts a comprehensive evaluation based on the applicant's educational background, research experience, scholarly output, alignment of research direction, future research plans, and availability to contribute to the Institute's work.

Submission of this form does not in itself constitute an offer of employment, a labour or employment relationship, or any commitment to remuneration. Final appointment outcomes, terms, responsibilities, entitlements, modes of collaboration, and fee arrangements are governed by the Institute's official written notice, appointment documents, collaboration agreements, or project agreements.

The application number is assigned internally by the Institute upon receipt; the applicant need not complete it.
